Director of Registration Service
National Office
Boy Scouts of America
North Brunswick, N.J. 08902

Gentlemen:

On January 16, 1975, one Ernest Morris, 2052 Madison Avenue, New York City, N.Y., registered as Scoutmaster of Troop 288 until March 31, 1976, appeared at the Bronx Scout Office stating to the undersigned that he was taking a leave of absence from Scouting. Reason given, recently married and employment requires him to work odd hours.

March 18, 1975, at about 1:15 P.M., the undersigned received a telephone call at the Bronx Scout Office from a Parole Officer, Gerard McInery, New York State Department of Correctional Services, 314 West 40th Street, New York City concerning Mr. Ernest Morris. Mr. McInery stated he had met with Mr. Morris in January and told him to desist from working with youth organizations. The only reason given to the undersigned, was Mr. Morris' previous criminal record did not warrant his youth affiliations.

The above information is being submitted to your office for your edification and implementation of any action deemed necessary.

Yours truly,

Richard E. Kovats
